ACREAGE LIVING & LIFESTYLE BUSINESS

Set upon 1.28 acres amongst tranquil rainforest gardens this truly unique property offers both a home and an established business in the semi-rural Matcham/Holgate valley. If it's time for you to make a lifestyle change and be part of a vibrant community, this is an opportunity not to be missed.

The Bamboo Buddha Caf   is well known for its friendly atmosphere, outstanding service and high-quality vegetarian and vegan meals. Operating throughout the day, the business is complemented by occasional special evening events, a small nursery, a gallery and a studio, which hosts regular classes including yoga and is also available for functions and workshops. A huge online social community ensures that events and classes are promoted and well patronised.

The gardens are tranquil and feature tropical plants, bamboos, buddha statues and an impressive pond system, which is home to a host of fish. The residence has been recently updated and has its own private entry and parking area as well as a beautiful outdoor living area and a deck for entertaining.

If you are looking for a lifestyle change, wanting to share an amazing space with others, an opportunity to try something new, or even the chance to diversify with an existing business, the Bamboo Buddha needs your serious consideration. Easily accessible and close to schools, shops, beaches and transport.

Location & Lifestyle

HOLGATE

Holgate is a semi-rural suburb of the Central Coast region of New South Wales in Australia and north-east of Gosford. It is part of the Central Coast Council local government area.

Holgate is located approximately five minutes from Erina and the shopping destination "Erina Fair", and seven minutes from beaches including Terrigal beach. Local public schools and many of the Central Coast's sought-after private schools, including Central Coast Grammar School, are all nearby.

Holgate has a lovely community public school, the much-acclaimed Bamboo Buddha cafe; a winery, the Matcham Valley Pony Club and other attractions including the Katandra Reserve. This reserve contains several walking trails and Seymour Lake, a recreational destination. Holgate has been the base for many suburban runners who train at the Katandra Reserve. "Katandra" is an aboriginal word meaning "Song of Birds".

Properties are mostly 2.5 acres but there are also 5 and 10-acre properties. Whether you are after peace and privacy, a beautiful outlook, plenty of open space for children to run free, room for vegetable gardens or horses, there is a property for everyone.

It's hard to believe that such a beautiful rural setting with a tight knit community is so close to everything. Gosford train station, the M1 motorway and Sydney are all within reach.
